The Adult Mentor supports adults learning essential parenting skills.

What You Bring

- Post Secondary education in Child and Youth Care field, adult education, or equivalent combination of education and experience;
- Demonstrated experience supporting families;
- Commitment to the strengths and values of Indigenous knowledge, cultural reclamation and traditional healing practices;
- Experience working in the Indigenous community;
- Ability to plan and facilitate group sessions;
- Strong problem identification and problem resolution skills;
- Ability to create and edit project documents, materials, presentations, and case notes;
- Proven team player who demonstrates flexibility and adaptability;
- Strong organizational skills, computer proficiency, professional work behaviour;
- Must be respectful, sensitive, and responsive to gender, race, ethnicity, socio-economic status and sexual orientation as demonstrated in ability to communicate and interact with other staff, parents/guardians and youth;
- Exemplify the qualities of honesty, integrity, fairness, empathy, patience and trustworthiness when dealing with youth and their families;
